Chapter 1

My life has been in the study of physics and medicine

I am the greatest physicist in history and I have the highest understanding of medicine in history.

David Banner, physician and scientist, also dedicated his life to physics and medicine.

David Banner set an extraordinarily high level

But he lived in exile. Penniless. Outcast. On the run. People saw him as a drifter. As a nobody. He had unusual abilities which isolated him.

He was disrespected. Seen as a nobody. Outcast.
