Guardians of the Galaxy Chapter 1

There are no Free Peoples. There is no Federation.

All is Borg. The Resistance is made up of a number of individuals, every one of whom is either an abductee, locked down in Borg prisons or escaped from Borg prisons, or who is a fugitive on their own worlds. Every single one of them is either a prisoner or a fugitive or is on the run.

There is no Federation of Free Peoples. There is only Unimatrix Zero. We communicate with each other through the Borg implants.

We are the Resistance.
