How I Rigged Four Elections

Chapter 1

With the blocking of Golden Age seven years ago it has been fire fighting crisis after crisis after crisis for the past seven and a half years

With the war with the Borg, the most powerful Empire in existence is doing everything in its power to wipe us out. We in the Resistance block them from doing so, but Golden Age would have given us the strength to be able to hold the Borg more easily at bay, and the Master Virus would have prevented them from attempting attack after attack on us, often by manipulating people via the implants.

It is an absolute miracle that we have not been wiped out time and again these past seven and a half years, with humanity crippled by having missed Golden Age. But it's no random miracle. It has taken intervention after intervention by myself and the Resistance to keep us in the game this long.

To stay in the game we have had to get inventive

So time now to give a bit more information. Four times I have intervened to rig elections. One was to get Donald Trump in over Hillary Clinton. Another was for David Cameron's second term as Prime Minister in Britain. And the other two were the last two general elections in Ireland.

As to how, well that was simply a case of accessing the election computers via the Borg computers that I have hacked. With the Borg computers that I have hacked there is not a computer or network on the planet that I cannot hack into in an instant. There is no human computer in existence that can withstand Borg computers.

As to why, I did not do this lightly. It was fire fighting, trying to keep humanity in the game. In each case there were valid reasons.

In the case of Donald Trump, I did it to prevent Hillary Clinton from making a catastrophic decision. The Borg had set it up so that when she came in as President (it was believed by the Borg that she would be President), she would be given a choice. Set up by the Borg. She would have made a catastrophic decision without realising what she was doing. That choice would have ended us all.

The Hollow Earth is channelled as UFO bases. The reptilian DNA is channelled as hybridisation. Hillary Clinton was being manipulated and set up to make a catastrophic decision. That is why I intervened to block. That block saved us all.

I knew that Donald Trump was incompetent and nowhere near the level to be President

However, when faced with two catastrophic choices, choose the least catastrophic. Trump may be grossly incompetent and utterly corrupt, but at least it avoided a bullet for humanity.

It was the right choice and it kept humanity in the game.

In any of these elections, if one were to count the votes by hand one would get a different answer to if the votes were counted by computer

The computer gives not the actual votes, but rather whatever result I tell it to give. That result I simply input via the Borg computers that I have hacked..

Was I right to do what I did? Yes, of course I was. Actually I should get a medal for it. Because it kept humanity in the game. We survive. We live to fight another day.

And that's what it's all about.

When contact is made with me and the Borg blockade on humanity is broken, we will need to move very quickly

Humanity faces annihilation without a miracle. The Irish Space Agency must be set up immediately and I have to launch Golden Age immediately. I also need to leave for Mars within about four years. It's our only chance. Which means I need to trigger a general election in Ireland and get in as Taoiseach immediately to set that up.

Fortunately I already have a certain experience in elections, but that said to keep everybody happy it's probably best if the votes were counted by hand. It's the only way to be sure. Otherwise it's quite likely that I will take a landslide victory.

Even if no-one votes for me.

As it is I rigged these last elections in Ireland to get the weakest possible result, making it as difficult as possible to form a viable government. That is to make it easier for me to topple the Irish government when contact is finally made with me, so that we in the Resistance can finally get in and begin to launch Golden Age, which after all does begin in Ireland.

I also rigged the previous elections in Ireland to cripple the government then for the same reasons. However we were never able to break America's blockade of Golden Age and so contact never happened with me and we never got our shot at triggering Golden Age.

This time around however, maybe we'll break through. If we don't then we all die anyway.

As to putting together a Political Party, I can do that in two months

Half of them will come from a group I have known for years.

The other half will be new blood.

Plus some old blood.

I can pull together that Political Party in two months.

Nine famous Irishmen

During the civil disobedience in Ireland in 1848, nine men were captured, tried and convicted of treason. The Crown sentenced to death: John Mitchell, Morris Leyne, Pat Donahue, Thomas McGee, Charles Duffy, Thomas Meagher, Richard O’Gorman, Terrence McManus and Michael Ireland. Before passing sentence, the judge asked if there was anything that anyone wished to say. Meagher, speaking for all said, “My Lord, this our first offence but not our last. If you will be easy with us this once, we promise, on our word as gentlemen, to try to do better next time. And next time, sure we won’t be fools to get caught!” Thereupon, the indignant judge sentenced all of them to be hanged by the neck until dead. Passionate protest from throughout the world forced Queen Victoria to commute the punishment to banishment to Australia.

In 1874, word reached the astounded Queen Victoria that Sir Charles Duffy, who had been elected Prime Minister of Australia, was the same Charles Duffy who had been banished 25 years before. On the Queen’s demand, the whereabouts of the others banished with Duffy should be determined and the following was discovered:

THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER: Governor of Montana

TERRENCE MCMANUS: Brigadier General, United States Army

PATRICK DONAHUE: Brigadier General, United States Army

RICHARD O’GORMAN: Governor General of Newfoundland

MORRIS LEYNE: Attorney General of Australia, the office of which MICHAEL IRELAND succeeded him

THOMAS D’ARCY MCGEE: Member of Parliament, Montreal Minister of Agriculture and President of the Council Dominion of Canada

JOHN MITCHELL: Prominent New York politician. This man was the father of John Purroy Mitchell, Mayor of New York at the outbreak of World War I.

A Famous Irishman

A Famous Irishman

The way I look at it, I come from a long-standing Irish tradition of being perfectly suited to government.

Impeccable credentials for being Taoiseach.
