Keep moving. Keep breathing.

Stayin' Alive

Chapter 2

Harmony

When all is in chaos externally, I seek the Tao internally

As within, so without. This is the Tao.

When there is discord without, I seek harmony within. When there is agitation without, I seek stillness within.

When all around me turns to chaos, I go deeper into the Tao within. And then the strangest thing happens. Things just seem to find a way of sorting themselves out.
