

The Road to Taoiseach

Part IV

By Ciarán Handley

6th September 2018

The Road to Taoiseach

Chapter 1

This is about the closest I have ever been to Tibet, which was in 1999. Thorong La pass in Nepal at 5,416 meters. I was within about 20 miles of Tibet.

I achieved Enlightenment in the summer of 2002 in Chang Mai, North Thailand. In 2008 I dropped out of almost all contact with people. No-one has known what I have been working on for years. Almost no-one has seen me for years.

On December 21st 2012 I became the first in history to achieve the Tao as a permanent state of being. This represents Ascension, the next stage of Enlightenment. As a guideline if one has achieved Enlightenment one is about half-way to Ascension. This represents the Tao.

Seven Years in Tibet – Trailer

The Road to Taoiseach

End of Part IV