X-Girl School 1st Class

Chapter 1

Melissa

“Melissa?” “Yes, mom?” “The post has arrived!”

“You’ve been accepted, Melissa! To the Tír na Cailíní Óga School for X-Girls!”

X-Men First Class - Recruiting Mutants

“Which means I’ll now be able to go to school as Melissa! I’ll no longer have to go to school as Fred!”

“That’s right, Melissa. You’ve been accepted to an all girls school for X-Girls.”

“From your first day of school you’ll never have to wear trousers again. Only myself, your sister, some women such as your aunts and the girls know you as Melissa. No man has ever seen her. Your father, your brothers and everyone at school know you as Fred. Of course they all know that you are Melissa, but no man has ever seen you in a skirt. You’ve lived in Duality.

Up until now you’ve been living a Double Life. You decided some years ago that your true identity was Melissa. But you hide her identity in public, passing among others as Fred.”

The Mask of Zorro

“But from your first day of X-Girl School, Melissa, you leave the name of Fred behind”

“From your first day of X-Girl school, Melissa, you will never be a boy again. Your life living full-time as a girl begins on your first day of X-Girl School. You’d be with others like you. Of the same mindset. X-Girls. You wouldn’t have to conceal your identity as a girl for fear of attracting the attentions of some guy.”

“And my training in the Ways of the Force would begin in earnest!”

“Actually, Melissa. it is the next step in your Jedi training. Your Jedi training actually began the day you decided to live as a girl in Duality.

But yes, for all the girls there, natural-born and new-girl, Jedi training begins in earnest from your first day at school.”

Imagine an all-girls school with a difference

All of the girls are of course girls, being as it is an all girls school. But only seven out of eight of the girls are natural-born girls. One in eight girls is natural-born male, but who now lives completely as a girl. She is being groomed in that school for a life of womanhood as woman to women. She goes into that school on that understanding. That her life is one of being a woman to women. She could go in as an X-Girl. But no T-Girl could enter. No boy who wanted to be a girl to men could enter that place.

All of the natural-born girls in that school are being raised to see it as normal that they lead men as their women. Their boyfriends are actually their girlfriends. For these girls it is normal that any boy that they may be interested in having a relationship with would wear a skirt. These girls are being raised to see it as normal that men spread their legs for them. If a man does not spread his legs for them and if he does not wear a bra (that is when they are old enough to have sex), then they are not interested.

So this is an all-girls school but only for X-Girls.

Only those natural-born girls who see it as normal that their men be their women can enter that school. Only natural-born boys who see it as normal that they be raised to spread their legs for women as their women could enter that school. You see it is not simply an all girls school.

It's an all girl X-Girls school. The first day in that school is X-Girls First Class.

The beginning of Jedi training.

What could make such a school possible?

A number of things, for a number of factors would have to come together to allow a boy to be raised in a school as a girl in such a way that the more he lives as a girl, the more he becomes a woman to women. Not to men. To achieve this requires a number of factors coming together. It is very specific.

One of the things that makes this possible is keeping the new-girl X-Girls in an environment that is shielded from men

D'Unbelievables - D'Builders

They will be far more vulnerable to men than the natural-born X-Girls, and so an all girls school would have to provide a very protected environment to make it possible for a natural-born male to go to school as a girl. Part of this is that the natural-born girls are raised to protect the new-girl X-Girls from men, which teaches Knighthood and leadership in the natural-born girls. This helps train Duality which is a key part of Jedi training. The Duality of the Tao. The natural-born girls become Knights. The new-girl girls become their girls. This is training in Duality.

For Melissa to be an X-Girl (woman to women) rather than a T-Girl (Transsexual or woman to men), she would need to be raised in an all-girls world for years while her psyche is steadily being coded to be woman to women. Only when this coding is deeply in place could she be in public as a girl. Even then, preferably in the company of natural-born girls. Her Knights. So the environment is very specific.

What else could make such a school possible?

One of the key factors that makes this possible is the figure-hugging ankle-length pencil skirt. All of the new-girl X-Girls will wear them. All of the girls wear skirts but the natural-born girl X-Girls have more flexibility in skirts.

For new-girl X-Girls however the figure-hugging ankle-length pencil skirt will be synonymous with them. They get to live and breathe figure-hugging ankle-length pencils. It's one of the key drivers that allows a new-girl X-Girl to become an actual girl. It is one of the key drivers to recode their psyches to female.

Nothing codes the psyche to female quite like the figure-hugging ankle-length pencil skirt.

It is one of the key tools that allows Fred to actually become Melissa

To become in time true female, rather than simply living as female.

How?

It will become more clear as we proceed.
